

Ahmet Kavak
Deputy General
Manager, Directorate
General of Food
Control

Ahmet Kavak was born in Kahramanmaraş in 1959 and graduated from Faculty of Agriculture, Erzurum Atatürk University in 1983. He did his masters degree in same university and worked in private and public sector as engineer.

He joined Ministry of Agriculture organization in 1993 as Department Chief of Plant Protection, Kahramanmaraş Provincial Directorate of Agriculture. After Ankara and Hatay Provincial Control Laboratory Directorships, he conducted Directorship of İstanbul Provincial Directorate of Agriculture until June 2011.

He was appointed to Vice General Directorship mission in General Directorate for Protection and Control in 2011 and after reorganization now he is Vice General Director of Food and Control General Directorate. Ahmet Kavak is married and have 3 children.

