

Dr. Bekir
Keskinliç
Vice President
Public Health
Institution

Bekir Keskinliç is a family physician and medical doctor. He graduated from Ankara Science High School and Hacettepe University, Faculty of Medicine.

He has worked in different units (such as General Directorate of Curative Services, General Directorate of Primary Health Care, Head of the Department of Foreign Affairs and Minister Counsellor) at the Ministry of Health since 2003. He represented Turkey as a member of the Standing Committee of the European Region of the World Health Organization for one semester.

Currently, he has been serving as a Vice President who is responsible for the programs of Non-Communicable Diseases at Public Health Agency of Turkey and Women's and Children's Health. He defines his duties, responsibilities and areas of interest as Public Health.

He is married and has two children.

