

Prof. Dr.
Kadir Halkman
Chairman,
Food Technology
Association

Kadir Halkman was born in 1953 in Ankara. He graduated at "Department of Food and Fermentation Technology, Faculty of Agriculture, Ankara University". During February 1977 - November 1979, he worked in Ministry of Food, Agriculture and Livestock, General Directorate of Export Development Projects (MEYSEB).

He started his Ph.D. studies at Department of Agricultural Microbiology, Agricultural Faculty, Ankara University in October 1978 and he took his Ph.D. degree in agricultural microbiology in December 1983. He had been an Associate Professor at Agricultural Biotechnology Division of Food Science and Technology on 1988. He became Professor of Food Sciences (Division of Food Microbiology) on 1996.

He also graduated from the Economics Department of the University of Anatolia in 1990 with B.A. He has been a lecturer and a researcher in Department of Food Engineering, Engineering Faculty, Ankara University and published six books and numerous scientific papers.

He worked in various committees of European Union, Ministry of Agriculture and Rural Affairs, Ministry of Health, The Union of Chambers and Commodity Exchanges of Turkey, Chamber of Food Engineers and Chamber of Agricultural Engineers. Since 2004, he has chaired the Association of Food Technology.

He is good at English. He is married and has a son.

