

Ramazan Ersoy

Republic of Turkey
Ministry of Customs and Trade
General Director
of DG for Consumer
Protection and Market
Surveillance

He was born in 1959 in Gölhisar/ Burdur. After graduating from Public Administration Department of the Faculty of Political Science, I.I.T.I.A. in 1980, he worked as Assistant Inspector in the Ministry of Industry and Trade between 1983 and 1986. After that he worked as Inspector in the Ministry of Industry and Trade between 1986 and 1994; and served Chief Inspector in the Ministry of Industry and Trade between 1994 and 2010. He has been working as Consumer Protection and Market Surveillance Deputy Director General since 03/05/2010.

He conducted studies and search on "Commodity Futures Exchanges" under supervisory of Prof. J. GREENLIF in the LEHIGH UNIVERSITY in the USA between 1997 and 1999; and attended two different courses for three months namely "Economic Policies of the EU" and "Non-Governmental Organizations in the EU" in University of London, UK between 01/01/2007 and 01/04/2007.

Having good command of English, Ramazan Ersoy is married and father of four children.

