

Zeki Terzioğlu

Director of Waste Management Department, Ministry of Environment and Urbanization,

Born in the town of Trabzon, Of, Terzioğlu graduated as an agriculture engineer from the Faculty of Agricultural Engineering in 19 Mayıs University. He started his career as an Environmental Health Technician at Samsun Local Health Authority and then, he worked in Trabzon and Artvin Provincial Departments of Environment. From 2004 to 2011, he worked as an engineer for the General Directorate for Environmental Management, Department of Waste Management. In 2011, he was assigned as the branch manager to the Department of Waste Management. From there, he was transferred to the Department of Chemicals Management as the head of the department. Terzioğlu attended trainings and seminars on Environmental Code of Practice, Dangerous Waste, Environmental Impact Assessment (EIA) Regulation, Setting an Environmental Information Network and National Environment Database, International Packaging and Packaging Waste, Packaging Waste Management and Practices in Turkey and Solid Waste Management. As of 2012, he has been working as the Director of Waste Management Department in the Republic of Turkey Ministry of Environment and Urbanization.

